

HALLOWEEN DANCE

On this chilling night, the 31st of October, gruesome events unfolded within the bowels of CHP house 1012. The annual menagerie of leather and vinyl responsible for the birth of both Richard Simmons and David Swanson was especially frightful this year, as the Corpse Bride, a Shark, and Ryan Lombardini (as himself) were in attendance. Dancing to Hellogoodbye and Akon courtesy of DJ Troy Campbell nearly got our blood flowing, if it had not already coagulated. Despite the valiant efforts of the Sailor Scouts, the celebration did end and subsequently saddened CHP-ers marched slowly back to the crypt.
